

European Distribution Box Customization and Installation Manufacturer

Article Overview

Delvalle Box, E-abel, and May Distribution are leading European providers of customized distribution boxes and turnkey assembly solutions.

Delvalle Box

Delvalle Box is a European leader in electrical enclosures with over 50 years of experience. They offer fully customized stainless steel enclosures (AISI 304/316) for industrial, outdoor, and corrosive environments, with IP65/IP68 and ATEX certifications . Their services include consulting, engineering, manufacturing, and integration, ensuring each project meets specific technical requirements. Delvalle handles everything in-house, from design to final packaging, allowing short lead times, high-quality control, and scalability from prototypes to large industrial series .

E-abel

E-abel specializes in dual-mount European standard distribution boxes with features like tempered glass doors, modular DIN rail layouts, and flexible installation options for both surface and flush mounting . Their enclosures comply with IEC 61439 and IEC 60529 standards, ensuring safety and regulatory compliance. These solutions are designed for flexibility, visibility, and future upgrades, making them suitable for modern low-voltage electrical projects .
