

High-quality electrical distribution boxes in North Macedonia

Article Overview

Rade Koncar TEP and Smates are among the leading local manufacturers of high-quality electrical distribution boxes in North Macedonia, complemented by international brands like Schneider Electric.

Local Manufacturers

Rade Koncar TEP is a prominent Macedonian company with a long-standing tradition in the electrical industry. Established in 2006 as part of the Rade Koncar brand, the company specializes in low, medium, and high-voltage electrical solutions, including customized distribution boxes. They emphasize innovation, R&D, and high-quality production standards, making them a reliable choice for both industrial and commercial projects. Smates operates a 2,000-square-meter facility with advanced machinery for precision metal fabrication. They produce high-quality electrical cabinets and distribution boxes, serving both domestic and European markets. Their focus on precision and quality makes them a trusted OEM and contract manufacturing partner. Dekometa is another local company specializing in precise metal fabrication for electrical equipment. They provide OEM and contract manufacturing services, ensuring high-quality standards suitable for complex electrical installations.
