

Papua New Guinea KVM Fiber Optic Matrix Brand

Article Overview

Matrox and AVCIT PHINX are leading KVM fiber optic matrix brands suitable for deployment in Papua New Guinea.

Matrox KVM Solutions

Matrox offers a range of KVM extenders and matrix systems that support fiber optic connections, enabling remote control of computers and servers over long distances without performance loss. Their products include:

- Extio 2 Series: Fiber-optic point-to-point KVM extenders supporting up to quad 2560x1600 @ 60Hz, USB HID, and stereo audio, ideal for multi-monitor remote workspaces.
- Extio F2408/F2208: Quad- and dual-monitor support over single-mode or multi-mode fiber, with low latency and high reliability.
- Avio 2 IP KVM: Supports 4K resolution over IP, suitable for broadcast, medical, and control room applications.
- KVM over IP Matrix Systems: Allow any user to control any system, scalable for large deployments with secure, real-time performance .
